UNIK ANTWERP

ABOUT

Based in Antwerp, a city that is often recognized as a hub for art and design, and even known as an incubator for tastemakers, Unik Antwerp's philosophy is that every culinary experience elevates itself into a dialogue where taste and aesthetics meet.

This has led the brand to go back to the roots of ceramics and seek out durable collaborations with creatives, both in and outside the culinary world, who remain authentic and true to their craft. These creators distinguish themselves by curating their own unique puzzle, without compromising their signature style.

This recognisability creates an environment that reflects the consumers individual style and identity. This is how Unik Antwerp, through carefully designed tableware collections, strives to lift the culinary experience to a higher level.

GLÓRIA

Glória - the first stoneware tableware collection of Unik Antwerp honours the Portuguese architecture with a compelling regard for nature. The collection feature simple yet striking shapes with a distinct rough texture.

The pieces pay homage to renowned architects like Alvaro Siza Vieira and Eduardo Souto de Moura, and their ability to blend modernity with nature or integrate it into the historical context of the location, while maintaining an unpretentious and modest aesthetic.

Design is also detail. Sometimes sensorial. Each piece, is hand-finished with a scraper to create a rough texture, giving it a bolder look. Even the leftovers that arise during the wheel throwing process are kept as a decorative element that give more body and character to the collection, and its curves.
